

GI 佐賀

Seishu(Sake) made in Saga prefecture has been designated as a Geographical Indication for the first time in Kyushu for Seishu(Sake) in June 2021.

What is the Geographical Indications(GIs) for Liquor Products?

Probably, many of you know that when the sign of “Champagne” for a liquor product, for example, it must be produced within the specified area, and it must meet prescribed production standards and quality requirements.

Thus, the GIs for Liquor Products are signs used on the product that have a collective geographical origin and the product according to the quality standard.
